THE OPEN HYMNAL

EDITION 2014.06

22 JUNE 2014

This hymnal is a part of the Open Hymnal Project to create a freely distributable, downloadable database of Christian hymns, spiritual songs, and prelude/postlude music. I am doing my best to create a final product that is "Hymnal-quality", and could feasibly be used as the basis for a printed church hymnal. This music is to be distributed as complete scores (words and music), using all accompaniment parts, in formats that are easily accessible on most computer OS's and which can be freely modified by anyone. The current format of choice is the ABC Plus format, favored by folk music distributors on the internet. All scores will also be converted into pdf, MIDI, and mp3 formats.

The maintainer of the Open Hymnal Project is Brian J. Dumont (brian dot j dot dumont at gmail dot com). I have gone through serious efforts to make sure that no copyright mistake makes it into this database. If I am in error, please inform me as soon as possible. This entire effort has used only free software, and I am indebted to the efforts of many other individuals, including the authors of the various ABC and ABC Plus software. Undoubtedly, I am also indebted to all of the great Christians who wrote these hymns.

This database comes with no guarantees whatsoever.

I would love to get email from anyone who uses the Open Hymnal, and I will take requests for hymns to add. My decision of whether to add a hymn will be based on these criteria (in the following order):

- 1) It must be in the public domain or otherwise freely distributable
- 2) It must be a Christian piece
- 3) Whether I have access to a printed copy of the music (surprisingly, a MIDI file is usually a terrible source)
- 4) Whether I like the hymn :)

If you would like to contribute to the Open Hymnal Project, please send an email to me, I would love the help! PLEASE EMAIL ME IF YOU FIND ANY MISTAKES, no matter how small. I want to ensure that every slur, stem, hyphenation, and punctuation mark is correct; and I'm sure that there must be mistakes right now.

Open Hymnal Project, 2014 Edition

“Freely you received, so freely give.” - Matthew 10:8 (WEB)

COPYING

The Open Hymnal Project uses copyright law of the United States of America. In other countries, it is your responsibility to verify each hymn as being freely distributable.

Four parts of a hymn are copyrightable:

1. Music (melody)
2. Setting (also known as arrangement or harmony)
3. Words (original language)
4. Translation (if applicable)

Each of these parts holds a separate copyright status, and must be considered individually.

Most of the hymns in the Open Hymnal are in the public domain in all four of these parts. Some are not. Specific copyright terms are listed on each score sheet and in each abc file.

All content produced specifically by the Open Hymnal which is not a part of a hymn is placed into the public domain. This includes compilation, indices, web pages (or parts thereof), scripts used to assemble the hymnal, and all other data files. Work from other open source projects is not our copyright and remains copyright of the respective owners. This includes but is not limited to the "Zebra Tables" script by David S. Miller used on the web pages, which remains copyright of David S. Miller.

PUBLIC DOMAIN

All hymns or hymn parts listed as "public domain" are not under copyright protection in the United States of America. In other words there is absolutely no ownership of the intellectual property that the words, translation, music, or setting represents.

No one may restrict you from using these hymn parts in any way (in the USA). Similarly, you may not restrict others from using them in any way. If you change a portion of the public domain work, you may only claim copyright on the portion which you have changed.

OTHER

Each work in the Open Hymnal which is not in the public domain gives specific license terms on the score sheet and in the abc source file.

Most of these have a license which reads similar to the following (from the hymn "Author of All Life"):

Words: Copyright 2009, Brian J. Dumont. These lyrics may be freely reproduced or published for Christian worship, provided they are not altered, and this notice is on each copy. All other rights reserved.

This means that you may freely use, print, reproduce, and make available for others the work in question, provided that the purpose is for Christian worship and that the copyright terms are left intact and are reproduced with the copyrighted work. This does not prevent you from using the copyrighted work as a part of another work which will be sold for-profit, provided that these terms are met.

Other license terms may be available, but can only be negotiated with the copyright holder. If you would like to use one of these works but require a different license, the Open Hymnal will attempt to help you to contact the copyright holder. We may be contacted via email at: brian dot j dot dumont at gmail dot com

ASSEMBLY

It is the contention and intention of the Open Hymnal Project that when numerous hymns are gathered into a collection, such as one of the printable editions, the hymns themselves remain separate and independent works. Thus, the copyright applied to any one hymn is not applicable in any way to the copyright of another.

Beset with gold and jewels rare,
She yet were far too poor to be
A narrow cradle, Lord, for Thee. | 15. Glory to God in highest Heaven,
Who unto man His Son hath given,
While angels sing, with pious mirth,
A glad New Year to all the earth. |

This hymn was written by Martin Luther to teach his 3 year old son about Christmas, and became a part of the Luther family Christmas tradition. One of the adults would dress up as an angel and sing the first 5 verses to the family. The rest of the family would sing verses 6 through 15.

 Yet what can I give Him: give my heart.

These lyrics are rather obscure, though quite beautiful. The earth (which represents all of God's promises to His People, Gen 13:14-15, Rom 4:13-17, Mt 5:5) and the water (which represents Baptism and forgiveness, Jn 3:5, Eph 5:25-27, 1Pt 3:21) are frozen and lifeless as the Law reigns alone (2Cor 3:6b), with no grace flowing before Christ. The Spirit (the wind) works in the world through the condemnation of the Law and the hope for redemption to come (frosty wind made moan, Micah 4:10, Ez 21:6-7). Then Christ humbly comes to melt the icy world in grace. This then inspires those saved, who recognize that they have nothing to give to Him, to finally, through His grace, fulfill the greatest commandment (Mt 22:37).

"When the Japanese have a Christmas devotional booklet, Mary is a Japanese woman, and her Child is a Japanese boy. With that, they are confessing that He was born for them too. For that was the message of the angel, that He was born to be the Savior for all people, and all people means one of us ... and so whether it is in Papau New Guinea or Japan or among the Eskimos, when they think of the birth of the Savior they see Him as born one of them." - Dr. Norman Nagel, 22 Dec 2005

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

GOOD FRIDAY

Words: Bernard of Clairvaux, 1153. Translated by James W. Alexander, 1830.

1. O sac - red Head, now wound - - ed, with grief and shame weighed down,
 2. What Thou, my Lord, hast suf - - fered, was all for sin - ners' gain;
 3. Men mock and taunt and jeer Thee, Thou no - - ble coun - - tance,
 4. Now from Thy cheeks has van - - ished their co - - lor once so fair;
 5. My bur - den in Thy Pas - - sion, Lord, Thou hast borne for me,

Now scorn - ful - ly sur - - round - - ed with thorns, Thine on - - ly crown;
 Mine, mine was the trans - - gres - - sion, but Thine the dead - ly pain.
 Though migh - ty worlds shall fear Thee and flee be - fore Thy glance.
 From Thy red lips is ban - - ished the splen - - dor that was there.
 For it was my trans - - gres - - sion which brought this woe on Thee.

O sac - red Head, what glo - - ry, what bliss till now was Thine!
 Lo, here I fall, my Sa - - vior! 'Tis I de - serve Thy place;
 How art thou pale with an - - guish, with sore a - - use and scorn!
 Grim death, with cru - el ri - - gor, hath robbed Thee of Thy life;
 I cast me down be - - fore Thee, wrath were my right - ful lot;

Yet, though des - pised and gor - - y, I joy to call Thee mine.
 Look on me with Thy fa - - vor, vouch - - safe to me Thy grace.
 How doth Thy vis - - age lan - - guish that once was bright as morn!
 Thus Thou hast lost Thy vi - - gor, Thy strength in this sad strife.
 Have mer - cy, I im - - plore Thee; Re - - deem - - er, spurn me not!

6. What language shall I borrow to thank Thee, dearest friend,
 For this Thy dying sorrow, Thy pity without end?
 O make me Thine forever, and should I fainting be,
 Lord, let me never, never outlive my love to Thee.
7. My Shepherd, now receive me; my Guardian, own me Thine.
 Great blessings Thou didst give me, O source of gifts divine.
 Thy lips have often fed me with words of truth and love;
 Thy Spirit oft hath led me to heavenly joys above.
8. Here I will stand beside Thee, from Thee I will not part;
 O Savior, do not chide me! When breaks Thy loving heart,
 When soul and body languish in death's cold, cruel grasp,
 Then, in Thy deepest anguish, Thee in mine arms I'll clasp.
9. The joy can never be spoken, above all joys beside,
 When in Thy body broken I thus with safety hide.
 O Lord of Life, desiring Thy glory now to see,
 Beside Thy cross expiring, I'd breathe my soul to Thee.
10. My Savior, be Thou near me when death is at my door;
 Then let Thy presence cheer me, forsake me nevermore!
 When soul and body languish, oh, leave me not alone,
 But take away mine anguish by virtue of Thine own!
11. Be Thou my consolation, my shield when I must die;
 Remind me of Thy passion when my last hour draws nigh.
 Mine eyes shall then behold Thee, upon Thy cross shall dwell,
 My heart by faith enfolds Thee. Who dieth thus dies well.

 Christ is Himself the joy of all, The Sun that warms and lights us.
 By His grace He doth impart Eternal sunshine to the heart;
 The night of sin is ended! Alleluia!

 The Word of grace hath purged away The old and wicked leaven.
 Christ alone our souls will feed; He is our Meat and Drink indeed;
 Faith lives upon no other! Alleluia!

 The cloud once more ap - - peared on earth a tru - ly fear - ful sight.

6. While here in flesh You taught us, Lord
 The object sure and right:
 To see our Father's glory bright,
 To have eternal life.

7. A goal beyond our reach You've shown;
 We cannot pay the price.
 No work of ours atones for sin,
 We cannot set things right.

8. You are the Truth, You are the Way for us to see His face.
 You died for us a sinner's death
 abandoned in our place.

9. On Easter day, Lord, You were raised
 Firstfruits of our new Life;
 And in the cloud we see the day
 When joy will end all strife.

10. We wait to see the cloud's return
 To be with us below,
 When You fulfill Your promises
 To bring us to Your home.

11. And though we wait to see You now
 We know that You are near.
 Your promises to build our faith
 Are stronger than our fear.

12. You give us faith by Your strong Word
 In water, wine, and bread.
 The Spirit works through earthly means,
 in pastures green we're fed.

10. Holy Spirit, Right divine,
 King within my conscience reign;
 Be my Lord, and I shall be
 Firmly bound, forever free.

11. Holy Spirit, Peace divine,
 Still this restless heart of mine;
 Speak to calm this tossing sea,
 Stayed in Thy tranquility.

12. Holy Spirit, Joy divine,
 Gladden Thou this heart of mine;
 In the desert ways I sing,
 "Spring, O Well, forever spring."

13. Now incline me to repent,
 Let me now my sins lament,
 Now my foul revolt deplore,
 Weep, believe, and sin no more.

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody consists of a series of eighth and quarter notes, with some rests. The lyrics are written below the staff, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: in - born na - ture that He slew, When you first gained His pro - - mise? 6. It washes all your sins away
And makes you pure and holy.
Hell's hold on you was lost that day,
God's freedom for the lowly.
You are now truly God's dear child
An heir of heaven undefiled
With crown to cast before Him.

7. Your nature lost in Adam's fall,
Corrupt through generations,
Refreshed now in the waterfall-
A perfect new creation!
The death of death before your eyes:
God's power must be recognized.
Hell's demons lie defeated!

8. Now we can gladly draw to Christ
And boldly ask His blessing
Because of Jesus' sacrifice,
Our sins upon Him pressing.
The Father looks on us and sees
Christ's holiness and His good deeds:
White robes giv'n by His merit.

9. This holy bath ... What pow'r displays!
What wondrous grace-filled cleansing;
None on their own can e'er appraise
The value of their raising.
The Word of God in simple form
Can calm the tempest and the storm.
It brings peace to your spirit.

10. Plain water cannot wash our sin
Nor clean our inward spirit,
But water with God's promise can
Bring all the Father wills it.
The water that floods over you
From God's command has strength imbued.
His Name is placed upon you.

11. Too precious to repay somehow,
Just grateful thanks we offer.
Christ's work has been delivered now
To you through Word and water.
Nothing but Christ's atoning work
In you could kill death's ugly smirk
You're now refreshed and holy.

12. Now gladly live as God's dear child
Proclaim to all His Gospel
Shine to the world; be undefiled...
A beacon to all people.
Till called home to eternal joy
With new song that we'll all employ
To cast our crowns before Him.

 That I'll bring before my God;
 In his sight I've acceptance
 Only through Thy streaming blood:
 Immaculate righteousness now I've acquired,
 Since Thou on the tree of the cross hast expired;
 The robe of salvation for ever is mine,
 In this shall my faith through eternity shine.
7. Let my soul, in full exemption,
 Wake up in Thy likeness now;
 Thou art made to me redemption,
 My sanctification Thou.
 Whatever I need for my Journey to Heaven
 In Thee, I my Savior, is unto me given.
 Oh! let me all perishing pleasures forgo,
 And Thy life, O Jesus! alone let me know.
8. Where should else my hopes be centered?
 Grace o'erwhelms me with its flood;
 Thou, my Savior, once hast enter'd
 Holiest heaven through Thy blood:
 Eternal redemption for sinners there finding,
 From hell's dark dominion my spirit unbinding,
 To me perfect freedom Thy entrance has brought,
 And childlike to cry, "Abba, Father," I'm taught.
9. Christ Himself, my Shepherd, feeds me,
 Peace and joy my spirit fill;
 In a pasture green He leads me
 Forth beside the waters still:
 Oh! naught to my soul is so sweet and reviving,
 As thus unto Jesus alone to be living;
 True happiness this, and this only supplies,
 Through faith on my Savior to fasten my eyes.
10. Therefore, Jesus, my Salvation,
 Thou my One, my All shalt be;
 Prove my fix'd determination,
 Root out all hypocrisy:
 Look well if on sin's slippery paths I am hasting,
 And lead me, O Lord, in the way everlasting;
 This one thing is needful, all others are vain,
 I count all but loss that I Christ may obtain.

 4. By grace His Son, on earth ap - pear - ing, Vouch-safed be - neath thy woe to bend;
 5. By grace! this ground of our sal - va - tion As long as God is true en - dures:

Why tremb - lest thou with ter - ror ground - less? Has ev - er God a false-hood taught?
 The might - y Sa - vior, long ex - pec - ted, To us this bliss - ful truth has brought,
 When Sa - tan threats with pride o'er - ween - ing, When troub - led con - science sighs for rest:
 Hadst thou, dam - na - tion just - ly fear - ing, Done aught to ren - der Him thy friend?
 What saints have penned by in - spi - ra - tion, What God to our poor soul se - cures,

His Word is true - then this must be: By grace there is a crown for thee.
 That He by death re - deems our race, And we are saved a - lone by grace.
 What rea - son ne'er can com - pre - hend It pleas - es God by grace to send.
 Was't not that He thy wel - fare sought, And but by grace de - liv'r - ance wrought?
 What all our faith must rest u - pon, Is grace, free grace through His dear Son.

6. By grace! but think not, thou who livest
 Securely on in godless ways,
 That thou, though all are called, receivest
 The promised rest that wakes our praise:
 By grace none find in heaven a place
 Who live in sin in hope of grace.

8. By grace the timid hearts that languish,
 Find access to the Father's heart,
 When conflicts fierce and bitter anguish
 Bid all their joy and hopes depart.
 Where, oftimes, should I strength obtain,
 Bid grace my anchor not remain!

7. By grace! They who have heard this sentence
 Must bid hypocrisy farewell;
 For only after deep repentance
 The soul what grace imports can tell;
 To sin while grace a trifle seems,
 To faith it bright with glory beams.

9. By grace! on this in death I'll rest me,
 Rejoicing e'en though feeling naught;
 I know my sin it oft oppressed me
 But Him, too, who my soul hath bought:
 My heart exults grief flees apace
 Because my soul is saved by grace.

10. By grace! O sin and Satan hear it!
 I bear my flag of faith in hand,
 And pass, in spite of doubts, nor fear it,
 The Red Sea to the promised land;
 I hold the word my Savior taught
 As certain, whether felt or not.

Be - neath thy con - tem - pla - tion sink heart and voice op - pressed.
 And bright with man - y'an an - gel, and all the mar - tyr throng;

 The life that knows no end - ing, the tear - less life, is there.

6. That we should look, poor wanderers, to have our home on high!
That worms should seek for dwellings beyond the starry sky!
And now we fight the battle, but then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting, and passionless renown.
7. And how we watch and struggle, and now we live in hope,
And Zion in her anguish with Babylon must cope;
But he whom now we trust in shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see Him shall have Him for their own.
8. For thee, O dear, dear country, mine eyes their vigils keep;
For very love, beholding, thy happy name, they weep:
The mention of thy glory is unction to the breast,
And medicine in sickness, and love, and life, and rest.
9. O one, O only mansion! O paradise of joy!
Where tears are ever banished, and smiles have no alloy;
The cross is all thy splendor, the Crucified thy praise,
His laud and benediction thy ransomed people raise.
10. Jerusalem the glorious! Glory of the elect!
O dear and future vision that eager hearts expect!
E'en now by faith I see thee, e'en here thy walls discern;
To thee my thoughts are kindled, and strive, and pant, and yearn.
11. Jerusalem, the only, that look'st from heaven below,
In thee is all my glory, in me is all my woe!
And though my body may not, my spirit seeks thee fain,
Till flesh and earth return me to earth and flesh again.
12. Jerusalem, exulting on that securest shore,
I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee, and love thee evermore!
I ask not for my merit: I seek not to deny
My merit is destruction, a child of wrath am I.
13. But yet with faith I venture and hope upon the way,
For those perennial guerdons I labor night and day.
The best and dearest Father Who made me, and Who saved,
Bore with me in defilement, and from defilement laved.
14. When in His strength I struggle, for very joy I leap;
When in my sin I totter, I weep, or try to weep:
And grace, sweet grace celestial, shall all its love display,
And David's royal fountain purge every stain away.
15. O sweet and blessèd country, shall I e'er see thy face?
O sweet and blessèd country, shall I e'er win thy grace?
I have the hope within me to comfort and to bless!
O shall I e'er win the prize? O tell me, tell me, Yes!

 When evil foes against us plot
 And vex our souls on every hand,
 Oh, give us strength that we may stand
 Firm in the faith, a well-armed host,
 Through comfort of the Holy Ghost!

8. From evil, Lord, deliver us;
 The times and days are perilous.
 Redeem us from eternal death,
 And when we yield our dying breath,
 Console us, grant us calm release,
 And take our souls to Thee in peace.

9. Amen, that is, So shall it be.
 Confirm our faith and hope in Thee
 That we may doubt not, but believe
 What here we ask we shall receive.
 Thus in Thy name and at Thy word
 We say: Amen. Oh, hear us, Lord! Amen.
